Notes from the boss.....

Peter Barnes is obviously disappointed and so are the Club that he got injured so early on in the game last Saturday. I had stressed to give him plenty of the ball and on his first touch he had to stretch and get a slight muscle pull. He has been released from his loan here to return to Maine Road for treatment and to get fit again and that could take two to three weeks.

But out of that gloom came some good in so far as it allowed Nicky Brookman and Julian Darby to shine. It's also nice to see Ian Stevens on the fringe and he looked a real live wire when he came on for the last ten minutes. The team as a whole responded to their responsibilities and now they have to aim for consistency and by working hard for one another this will show through.

Tonight we welcome Exeter City to Burnden and they are another hard working team. Although they have faltered lately their early season promise could well return; a couple of wins would put them back in there again.

Steve Thompson has shown great determination and effort despite all the transfer speculation surrounding him at the moment. As far as I am concerned he shows great quality and when a lad can do that I obviously feel his future is here.

Gary Henshaw meanwhile is recovering from his stomach injury and the injury isn't as bad as first thought. Hopefully he could be back within a couple of games.

I hope the fans enjoy tonight's game.

The Reserves had a free week-end but hopefully they will have picked up a few tips from Saturday's game in readiness for their encounter with Scunthorpe United Reserves tomorrow.

EXETER CITY

Draw specialist Exeter City shared the spoils in over twenty League matches during last season creating a new record.

The Devon club proved difficult to beat early in the season but failed to maintain a promotion drive because of an inability to win away. Veteran forward Tony Kellow provided most of the goals as well as pulling the pints off the pitch — he runs Exeter City's Social Club.

Despite an improved playing season at St. James's Park, Exeter had more than their fair share of troubles off the pitch. Like several other desperate clubs, it had to go cap in hand to the Football League for a loan to pay two weeks wages. The League reacted with a cheque for £7,000, this temporarily bailing out a club which is said to be £330,000 in the red.

The club's financial problems were not helped when Devon County Council ordered it to close down half of its grandstand because safety work had not been carried out. Exeter had spent a considerable sum on other sections of the ground.

Manager Colin Appleton who worked wonders on a limited budget, threatened to quit towards the end of season because the local press criticised the club. After a meeting with the local newspaper sports editor, he decided to continue.

VISITORS PEN FILE

MEL GWINNETT - Goalkeeper. Has played for Peterborough United, Hereford United, Gloucester City and Bradford City from where he was signed in July 1985. Made his Exeter City debut against Colchester United at Layer Road on 4th October 1985.

RICHARD COOPER - Midfield. With Sheffield United from 1981-1985 where he made his League debut. Signed from Lincoln in the summer where he spent the last two seasons.

KEITH VINEY - Defender. Now in his sixth season at St. James's Park, having won the Player of the Year title twice (1983 and 1984). Signed from Portsmouth in June 1982 he made his Exeter debut at Huddersfield Town and has missed few games since. He originally joined Portsmouth as an apprentice in 1974.

ROY CARTER - Midfield. Signed from Newport during the close season. Roy has over 400 League matches to his credit.

SHAUN TAYLOR - Defender. Formerly in non League football before signing for Exeter in December 1986 and has quickly established himself at the heart of the defence.

PAUL OLSSON - Midfield. Made his Exeter debut whilst on loan from Hull City against Hereford United in March. Signed for Exeter on full contract during the summer.

PAUL BATTY - Midfield. Signed from Chesterfield in July 1986. Originally an apprentice professional with Swindon Town, he made his football League debut against Crewe Alexandra in September 1982, going on to make 102 League appearances, before being released to join Chesterfield in June 1985.

DEAN EDWARDS - Forward. Joined Exeter from Wolverhampton in March 1987 and has already established himself as a firm favourite with the crowd.

TONY KELLOW - Forward. Now in his third spell with the Club. As well as playing, he handles the coaching at St. James's Park, and is Manager of the Exeter City Social Club. Discovered playing for Falmouth Town in 1976, this prolific goalscorer has also appeared for Blackpool, Plymouth Argyle, Swansea City and Newport County.

STEVE HARROWER - Midfield. Exeter City player of the 1985/86 season. Signed from Western League side Dawlish Town in January 1984 after originally appearing for Exeter as a youth player before being released. Full League debut v Oxford United, January 2nd 1984.

PAUL WILLIAMS - Forward. After a spell with Bristol City between 1982-1984 and having fully recovered from twice having broken his leg. He is now on the fringe of a 1st team place.

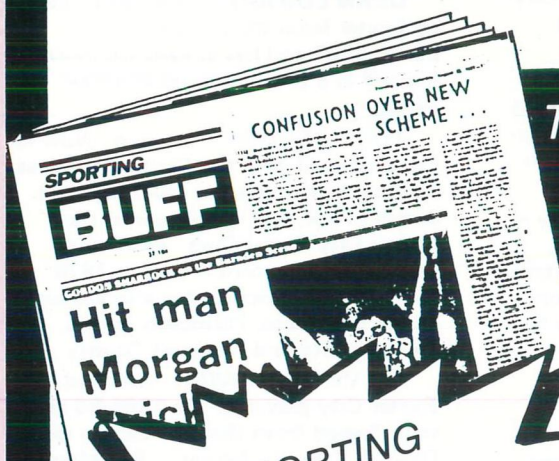

GORDON NISBET - Defender. A very experienced player signed from our neighbours Plymouth. He will be looking to make his 600th Football League appearance some time during the season.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

In Division 1 we see new leaders in Liverpool who hit the top for the first time this season, in front of 43,700 spectators, including Ian Rush. Manchester United, keen to keep in touch with the leaders, had to wait until late on before a Bryan Robson goal clinched the points at the expense of unfashionable Norwich. Newcastle and Everton shared the spoils at St. James Park.

In the Second Division, Bradford City maintained their six point gap over second place Hull. Neighbours Blackburn beat Stoke in a mid table encounter but Manchester City went down miserably at strongly fancied Ipswich. Highest aggregate of the day was at Gerry McElhinney's Plymouth who beat Leeds United 6-3.

In the Third Division there were no changes at the top where the three leading contenders: all won, Blackpool being unable to hold improving Sunderland who took a large following to the seaside. Preston, with new signing Warren Joyce finished as they started at Brighton. Neighbours Bury went down by the odd goal at Park Vale where former Manchester City's Darren Beckford scored the all important winner. Early season leaders Wigan lost out again, this time to Fulham.

In the Fourth unpredictable Crewe took the wind out of Scarborough's sails at Gresty Road with a 1 - 0 victory but the visitors still stay top. George Oghani's two goals for Burnley claimed maximum points at Exeter while next Saturdays opponents Rochdale were booed off the field in their 1 - 3 reverse to visitors Darlington. Wolves mustered a 3 - 0 home victory over lowly Tranmere where the Divisions joint top scorer Stevie Bull had a helping hand. A total of 168 goals were scored on the day in front of total attendances of just over 346,000 but dependent on how you look at it the best win of the day was the Littlewoods punter who can expect a jackpot payout with only seven score draws on the coupon.

Bolton Wanderers . . . 5 Carlisle Utd . . 0

Teenaged Nicky Brookman helped Bolton overcome the loss of ex-England winger Peter Barnes just eight minutes into his home debut.

No worries for Wanderers, though, as Brookman led the assault on a patched up Carlisle side missing three suspended key players. The Merseyside midfielder crashed in a right foot volley for his first League goal.

Then a minute from time he wrapped up Bolton's biggest win of the season with an even more spectacular shot.

In an all-action performance, Brookman laid on a goal for Elliott and supplied the cross that Wright headed into his own goal.

Carlisle keeper Taylor had a miserable afternoon and ended up needing hospital treatment.

First, he let Darby's shot slip through his hands. Then he missed the last five minutes injured after colliding with Bolton substitute Stevens, and Carlisle finished with ten men.

FRANK WORTHINGTON

Thanks to the Freight Rover Trophy pairings, last week we saw the return of one time Burnden idol, Frankie 'Worthy' and although now in the twilight of a colourful career he must have been impressed by the reception from the Wanderers fans when he went on as substitute for the last fifteen minutes or so.

It was whilst Frank was at Huddersfield when the legendary Bill Shankley moved in. Frank said, "I was obviously disappointed when the move to Liverpool fell through but they found my blood pressure a bit high at the medical and I moved to Leicester two months later for £100,000."

His form at Filbert Street gained Frank his first International Cap in 1974 against Northern Ireland, when he came on as sub.

He took part in the successful East European tour wearing the England jersey. In typical fashion Frank explained, "Ramsey picked the squad and Mercer managed the team. We played East Germany, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia and finished unbeaten." Shortly after, Don Revie was appointed England boss and Frank continued, "when Revie took over it was the worst thing that could have happened to English football and my days were numbered from that point at that level."

Later of course, Frank moved from Leicester to Bolton and he recalls those happy days. He said, "me and Neil Whatmore struck up a good partnership and everything clicked into place. We gained promotion and it was a great season."

Fans will always remember 'Worthy' for that memorable goal against Ipswich. In the wizards' own words he recalled, "Alan Gowling took a throw in. I controlled it on my chest, back to goal, and then on my foot. As the defence came out I lifted the ball over their heads, turned and volleyed the ball into the net, although I actually aimed for the stancion!" It was claimed to be the goal of the century by the Sportswriters but Frank saw it differently. He said, "It was probably the best goal from the point of view that it was on t.v. and received plenty of publicity, but there were a lot more that season that weren't on t.v."

On the field Frank Worthington never shy's off doing the unexpected and his advice to fellow players is that "you've got to try things to improve." Now at Preston Frank is trying to help the younger players and he said, "If they're keen and willing to learn my time will have been well spent. Today they don't seem to produce individuals and it's not to the benefit of the game."

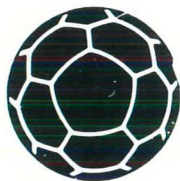

Don't miss the next programme which includes the 'Worthy' warning on soccer in the USA and his spell in management.

Commercial Comment...

When the £5,000 Quarterly Lifeline draw took place last Saturday it would have been nice for the winner to have been in the audience - and normally he might have been - but he wasn't even in the country. Mr. J. Barnes was still on holiday in Greece and wasn't due to jet back to England until yesterday.

Mr. Barnes resides in Lostock and is a Wanderers lottery agent.

The £1,000 weekly prize was won by Stan Haginbottom, of Horrocks Fold. He is a Director at Bolton Brady, the manufacturers of shutter gates and doors.

AYE, AYE, HE'S TOP OF CLASS!

Last Saturdays 'Soreen Face in the Crowd' winner turned out to be Maths teacher, Ted Mullineaux, not from Wolves, in fact he resides in the Heaton area of Bolton.

Ted has been watching the Wanderers for 28 years. He said, "I used to stand on the Bolton end watching Nat, but now I stand in the Burnden Paddock".

It was there that someone pointed out to him that he was the competition winner. Ted explained, "A bloke tapped me on the shoulder and said isn't that you. I normally don't buy a programme but I will from now on."

There's bound to be some classroom comment next week when 'Sir's' pupils find out about his snap shot, but it won't be around Bolton for Ted teaches at Wellington Boys School in Altrincham.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 19th October, 1982. A crowd of 4300 were at Burnden for Peter Nicholson's benefit game. The Wanderers took on a Peter Nicholson 1978 XI which included Frank Worthington and George Best. Goals from Gerry McElhinney, Andy Hodgkinson, Vernon Allatt and Chris Thompson gave Bolton a 4-0 win.

23rd October 1982. Player/Manager John McGovern dropped himself for the visit of Barnsley to Burnden. Ronnie Glavin gave the Yorkshire side the lead from the penalty spot in the sixth minute and they secured the points with a goal from Alan Birch two minutes from time.

10 YEARS AGO. 22nd October, 1977.

The Wanderers came back from a two goal deficit to share the points with Southampton at The Dell. Nick Holmes gave The Saints a first half lead which was increased in the 62nd minute through Phil Boyer. Bolton struck back within a minute when Frank Worthington scored his fourth goal for the club in only his fifth game.

Will Morgan struck a 76th minute equaliser for the Wanderers after Saints 'keeper Peter Wells had mispunched a Worthington cross. 25th October, 1977. Bolton went into the fourth round of the League Cup with a 3-1 home win over Peterborough United. Roy Greaves and Sam Allardyce gave the Wanderers a comfortable half time lead before Alan Slough pulled one back for United. Neil Whatmore restored the two goal advantage with a penalty ten minutes from time.

15 YEARS AGO. 20th October, 1972. Rochdale's biggest crowd of the season, 7165, saw the Wanderers twice come from behind to take a point. Peter Gowans and John Byrom were the goalscorers in the first half whilst Reg Jenkins and Peter Nicholson did likewise during the second period.

25th October, 1972. A strong Bolton side crashed out of the Lancashire Senior Cup with Chorley winning 1-0 at Burnden. Kevin Wainwright scored the winner for the Magpies who included Paul Mariner in their side.

28th October, 1972. A second successive point was dropped at home to a club newly promoted from division four when Southend drew 1-1. Ron Phillips scored for Bolton after only 75 seconds but Dave Elliott equalised in the 43rd minute for United.

RESERVES NEWS

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES 0 OLDHAM ATHLETIC RESERVES 1 7th October, 1987.

It was a tale of two halves as far as the Wanderers were concerned when they failed to find the net for the first time this season against an Oldham side hoping to regain their first division place at the first attempt.

The first half was a dour affair with Steve Elliott having the Wanderers best chance, only to be denied by 'keeper David Williams, in a one against one situation. Mark Winstanley also went close with a left foot volley but he failed to reappear for the second half after receiving a knock early in the game.

Oldham's best chance came from a Glen Keeley header which was headed off his own line by Gary Brown but their luck changed on the stroke of half time when Julian Darby turned a Dean Hanley cross into his own net.

The second half was a different affair with the Wanderers taking control. Chances fell to both Ian Stevens and Steve Elliott and both saw their efforts go inches wide of the target.

Neil Whatmore made his first appearance at Burnden since re-joining the club when he came on as substitute with a quarter of an hour remaining. He who hour remaining. He showed some nice touches and set up Nick Brookman to shoot narrowly wide with the Oldham defence static.

Team: Price, Hughes, Brown, Spooner, Darby, Winstanley, Burrows, Banks, Stevens, Elliott, Brookman. Subs: Neal for Winstanley, Whatmore for Burrows.

HANS

What colour for the next programme? We certainly seem to have had more changes this season than Danny La Rue — or at least to last us a decade.

But judging by your reactions we are on a winner.

Mr C. Lyon of Chester writes, "tremendous, absolutely tremendous, my favourite column has got to be Safe Hans." Then Mr Hugh Raynell of Toilet Street, Waterloo States, "what a wonderful match day mag. Personally I prefer Spotlight, but when will they feature my favourite player — Roy Hartle." A former Liberal party leader suggests a page on tips to improve the game, starting with ways to stiffen up the back four. Unfortunately I don't think so.

Quite an interesting letter came from a Mr Lucan of no fixed address, who wrote, "my favourite piece in the programme is 'Face in the Crowd.' But why can't we have sections of the seating photographed. You never know who you might capture on film." Sounds okay to me Mr Lucan.

One letter received from a 'Sunday Sport' reader — he must have been an away supporter — claimed the programme editor had been taken away by the vice-squad for further examination and promised to keep us 'abreast' of the situation.

We have received several letters from the fairer sex asking for a Problem Page which is being looked into. This could lead to 'Agony Aunt Alf Davies' being introduced.

On a more serious note, later in the season we will be doing a series of articles based on Peter Wright's Spycatcher' about two Wigan supporters who travel the length of the country sampling pies on away Grounds. Clearance will have to be sought from the Government but hopefully 'Piecatcher' will be in your programme soon.

Burnden Park News

FLY AWAY, PETER!

Phil Neal's acquisition of Peter Barnes on loan from Manchester City couldn't have been more aptly timed.

During his loan period at Burnden Park, the flying wingman would have taken in some half dozen games.

Peter rested himself for the Preston game in readiness for the visit of Carlisle. As we all know now he suffered a pulled muscle in the first few minutes and had to be substituted.

Barnes had been really looking forward to his spell when he said, "I've come to Bolton to play first team football. I've played with Phil Neal at England level and worked for Mick Brown at Manchester United and I was hoping to help them."

Now he's back on the injury list at Maine Road but he gave us some background on himself before leaving.

He started his career at Manchester City before Ron Atkinson signed him at West Brom for a two year spell. He then moved to Leeds, Seville (Spain), back to Leeds, then Coventry, Manchester United and then across the City to where he started.

Of his spell on the continent Peter said, "I enjoyed it but my wife didn't. She was expecting at the time and the climate was too warm." Pre match preparations at Seville meant leaving with the team on a Friday in readiness for a Sunday fixture. "They try to own you," Peter said.

He appeared in the England jersey on 22 occasions and believes in skill. This sort of experience and class would have been beneficial to the Wanderers. Maybe once the player gets himself back to full fitness he might like to return to prove his worth.

TONIGHT'S MASCOT IS

Nine years old Matthew Bowman of Limefield Rd, Smithhills. He attends St. Peters C of E School at Smithhills Deane and plays centre forward for his school.

Matthew's favourite players are John Thomas and Trevor Morgan.

REFLECTIONS!

Exeter City make only their second ever visit to Burnden Park this evening the only other encounter being in March 1984.

On that occasion a Wayne Foster goal was enough to give the Wanderers the points and kept Exeter rooted at the foot of Division Three. Exeter remained in that position and have been in the Fourth Division since then.

Bolton's only League visit to St. James's Park was in October 1983. It was a hot tempered affair with seven players having their name taken by the referee. Two Tony Caldwell goals put Bolton into a comfortable position until City were awarded a penalty seven minutes from time.

Stan McEwan converted the kick, which had been awarded for handball by Warren Joyce, although it was hotly disputed by the Bolton players. Two minutes from time McEwan grabbed his second goal from a free kick and so the spoils were shared.

There was a disputed penalty on Bolton's only visit to St. James's Park for a cup tie. This came in October 1978 when Exeter won a third round League Cup tie by 2-1, City took the lead after 17 minutes through John Delve, but the Wanderers equalised in the 50th minute, thanks to an Alan Gowling shot.

City's winner came from Tony Kellow who converted a 68th minute penalty awarded after David Burke had collided with Delve. Things got worse for Bolton, who were then in the first division, Neil Whatmore being sent off for a retaliation offence.

GOLDEN OLDIES!

Tonight we reproduce a copy of a postcard showing the rival captains in the 1929 FA Cup Final. James Seddon is the Wanderers captain whilst Jimmy McIlwaine is his Pompey counterpart.

The Wanderers made it three Wembley wins with goals from Billy Butler and Harold Blackmore. Exeter had strong connections with the Wanderers team of this era.

Goalkeeper Dick Pym joined the Wanderers from Exeter in the summer of 1921. He played in all three of the Wanderers cup finals of the 1920's without conceding a goal.

Harold Blackmore was also signed from Exeter for the sum of £2150 and scored 122 goals for Bolton between 1927 and 1932.

Players also went in the other direction, most notably, Jimmy Rigby and Jack Feebury.

OUT & ABOUT

DIVIDED WE STAND

What's this we hear about the anonymous female fan who travels down from Middlesbrough with her husband every home game.

Its an unusual situation because her husband supports Manchester United and we believe that she drops her hubby off at Old Trafford before continuing her journey to Burnden Park. After final whistle its presumably back to Old Trafford and then home. Bet there is always plenty to discuss during the ride back to Teeside. Maybe our anonymous fan will make herself known.

.....AND KEEPING IN TOUCH

Tonight's game will be of special interest for another distant fan. Former Wanderers goalkeeper of the three famous 1920 Finals, Dick Pym now lives Exeter way and we understand he takes a regular interest in all Wanderers results. Dick doesn't get about as much as he used to but still keeps his mind active making tapestries nowadays.

SPOTLIGHT

Derek Scott

'Mr Versatile' is how one would describe him, for Derek has played in all positions except goalkeeper during his career. He hails from Gateshead and his only other club is Burnley, whom he joined from school.

He is 29 and stands at 5 foot 9", weighing in at 11 stone 11 lbs. Derek is a former England schoolboy International and gained a 3rd Division Championship medal at Turf Moor.

'Scotty' as he is known in the dressing room is a real family man, married to Gill and he has two sons Christopher and Paul.

He rates two people to have had most influence on his career, Dave Merrington and Brian Miller both at Burnley. Brian is in fact Derek's father-in-law and his brother-in-law is David Miller who came on as sub for Preston here last week. Quite a unique footballing family but Derek says there was no favouritism shown at Burnley.

He recalled an instance when he was once substituted by his brother-in-law but no doubt there have been discussions over the weekend on Exeter for Burnley won there last Saturday.

His other favourite team is Newcastle and favourite away ground is "anywhere we get three points."

He dislikes shaving, gardening and cold toilet seats! Derek says his ambitions are to see his sons do well in life and to keep Warren Joyce quiet in the dressing room. "I finally achieved that now," he said.

In musical tastes its Roxy Music and Whitney Houston and favourite T.V. programmes are Black Adder and the Equaliser. A player that Derek earmarks for the future is Bolton apprentice - Mick Jefferies, so watch the name.

TONIGHT'S REFEREE

Mr J.W. Lloyd (Wrexham)

John is in his third season in the Football League, after progressing through the Welsh National League and the Northern Premier. Last season he was linesman in the European Cup Winners Cup Quarter Final between Anderlecht and Bayern Munich. He is one of the few who has turned to refereeing from the playing side for he is an ex-Welsh Youth International and made two appearances for Wrexham in the 60's. Away from football he is an Accountant in local Government and his hobbies are cricket, golf and gardening.
